

Cancellation / Refund Policy

Refund policies are determined and implemented by the individual merchant. If a client has a refund, return or exchange request for an order placed with a merchant, please contact the merchant directly. Each merchant is expected to clearly state their refund policy and to ensure the client fully understands those terms prior to completing their purchase. YoManE is not liable for any refunds or returns and no cash refunds are processed using the Payment Solution.